

Did you know that about 27,000 people are locked up in detention centres and prisons for the purpose of immigration control each year in the UK?

BID condemns the use of incarceration for immigration control. We're fundraising for BID's vital legal work which helps people in detention centres and prisons to fight for their freedom.

How you can help:

.....

.....

.....

.....

