

Urbanism Awards 2023 nomination: Claypits Local Nature Reserve, Glasgow

Great Place category

The supporting statement for Claypits Local Nature Reserve's nomination is quoted in full below.

"A fantastic example of an nature in the city. Redeveloped through a partnership approach with local people. It's used as a green waiting room for adjacent health centre. It has fun features (like slide path) and new bridges like different communities to the space."