

SPEAK

At our events

Our full day seminars and lunchtime webinars regularly attract up to 100 attendees. Our members enjoy hearing from agencies and their peers. Our events are the perfect platform to showcase case studies that impact the bottom line and apply innovative new research approaches

SPONSOR

An AURA Award

The AURAs are fast becoming the industry's most coveted awards. Presented at a black tie event in July, they are the only industry awards nominated and voted for by clientside researchers

AURA is the UK's largest events and networking organisation for clientside research and insight professionals. Through our regular events, member forum and knowledge bank we offer our members continuing personal development, inspiration and peer-to-peer support. Our 700+ members are all research decision makers working in a wide range of team sizes and sectors (including B2B, B2C and NFP); what they all have in common is a desire to raise their expertise and impact within their organisations
