

President: Professor Peter Dangerfield, Secretary: Dr. Jenny Skidmore, Treasurer: Mr. Neil Ashwood

BACA Annual National Student Essay

Students from the UK and Ireland are invited to submit an essay, between 1000-1500 words, discussing the following topic:

Reflect on how clinical anatomy impacts modern society

Eligibility:

The competition is open to all undergraduate and postgraduate students who are enrolled in a full-time Science or Clinical Programme at a recognised teaching institution in the UK and Ireland. Applicants must be a BACA member.

Format:

- Essays should be written in Calibri size 12-font, double spaced and referenced in the Vancouver style.
- Essays should be between 1000-1500 words (excluding cover page and reference list).

Submission:

- Essays to be submitted to baca.communication@gmail.com by 16:00 hours BST, July 15th 2020. Your submission will be acknowledged. Late entries will not be accepted.
- Name the file with your surname and initial.
- Only Microsoft Word (doc, docx) format or PDF format will be accepted.
- On the cover page include the following:
 - Your name, email address, your institution, the programme you are enrolled in and year of study.
 - A signed statement of originality, in this you will be required to confirm the following: "I certify that the attached material is my own work. I also certify that I have formally credited or formally acknowledged the words and ideas of others.”

President: Professor Peter Dangerfield, Secretary: Dr. Jenny Skidmore, Treasurer: Mr. Neil Ashwood

- Your information will be dealt with in accordance to the GDPR. Your details will only be used for the purposes of contacting you regarding your submission. It will not be used for any other reason or given or sold to any other company or organization.
- On a new page, start your essay. Your essay page(s) should not include any identifying information such as your name or your institution.
- Due to the anticipated high number of submissions, BACA may not always be able to provide individual feedback.

Prize:

The winning essay from the undergraduate and postgraduate categories will receive the following:

- £100 cash prize
- An invitation to attend and present the winning essay at the next BACA meeting.

FAQ:Can I include graphs or images in my essay?

Yes, you may include graphs and/or images. Any accompanying text (legends) will be included in the word count (legends). Images used should be properly referenced.

Does the word count include references and figures?

The word count does not include your references list or the words included within your figure. However, it does include the accompanying text to the figures (legends).

President: Professor Peter Dangerfield, Secretary: Dr. Jenny Skidmore, Treasurer: Mr. Neil Ashwood

Can I enter if I am not a BACA member?

No, this competition is open to BACA members only. To become a member of BACA, an application form must be filled and submitted through BACA website.

What referencing style should I use?

Vancouver style

When is the final deadline?

The deadline is July 15th 2020, 16:00hours BST. There is NO leeway to this.

When will the winner be announced?

All participants will be informed of the results approximately 8-10 weeks after the submission date. The winner will be contacted directly and their name announced in the next BACA meeting Program.

Whom should I contact if I have a problem?

You may contact us at baca.communication@gmail.com for any enquiries.