

Role Description – President of British Association of Neonatal Neurodevelopmental Follow-Up (BANNFU)

Title:	President of BANNFU
Accountable to:	BAPM, BANNFU and Membership
Term of office:	3 years from March 2023 (plus up to 6 months optional handover and support to new representative when term of office ends). Re-election is possible for further 3 years.
Who can apply:	Any ordinary BANNFU member
Remuneration:	Honorary. Reasonable travel expenses will be covered
Workload:	Estimated 1-2 hours per week

The primary focus of this role is to be the image and voice of BANNFU on external forums. The President liaises directly with incoming communication from BAPM and other channels and deputises for the Chair in their absence.

What BANNFU can offer you:

- A central role in influencing BANNFU's work both in developing standards, supporting research in the area, and delivering education to neonatal professionals
- The opportunity to influence the organisation and delivery of neonatal neurodevelopmental services at national level
- Opportunities to network with a wide and diverse range of professionals in perinatal care
- Fascinating and exciting exchange of knowledge and expertise

What BANNFU will expect from you:

- BAPM or BACCH membership
- Attendance at Executive Committee meetings (These are held every 2-3 months. We expect there to be 2 face to face meetings and 2-3 virtual meetings per year.)
- Work with the rest of the BANNFU committee and BAPM Office to create and follow through a work plan.
