

BAPM webinar

Streams: Executive Team

24th September 2020

Anusha Arasu

BANNFU

British Association of Neonatal Neurodevelopmental Follow Up. BAPM Special Interest Group

Aims of BANNFU

- * To provide outcome data for audit of neonatal practice
- * To ensure early intervention is in place either in the neonatal unit or post-discharge
- * To inform the community for service planning
- * To provide advice for education for medical and other professional colleagues
- * To offer parental support

- * Core group members
- * Executive Committee - Chair , President , Secretary
- * Allied Healthcare professional membership
- * Parents membership

- * Roles of Executive Committee

Managerial

Administrative

- * Role of Core group

Advisory

Themed Representatives

- * Quality Representative
- * Research and Data Representative
- * Networks Representative
- * Working Groups and Publications Representative
- * Education , Training and CPD Representative
- * Membership and Communications Representative

Membership

- * Honorary Core Active members- Responsible for the 4 streams. Streams are flexible and term fixed 1-2 years (TBD)
- * Honorary Expert Members- Multidisciplinary Senior professionals on advisory roles but flexible to become Core Active Members should they wish.

All members must be BAPM members or BACCHS members if this is relevant to their role

* Liaison with other professional groups

BACCHS

Chartered Society of Physiotherapists

BLISS

RCPCH

Education

BANNFU

British Association of Neonatal Neurodevelopmental Follow Up. BAPM Special Interest Group

- * Core group membership meetings – 3 monthly
- * Minutes published on BAPM/BANNFU website
- * Funding
- * Cost of membership

* Role of social media

Twitter BAPM

BAPM website

RCPCH website

