

Why I love you...

Think about someone you love or care about. It could be a friend, a family member or someone else.

Use this page to write down the reasons why they mean so much to you.

This person is important to me because...

A great memory I have with this person is...