

Reporting Hate Crime – An Easy Read Guide

What is Hate Crime?

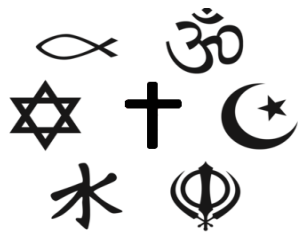

Hate crime is when someone targets you because of who you are.

This could be because of your:

- Race

- Religion

- Sexual orientation

- Disability

Transgender

- Or transgender identity

Abuse can be in person or online

Abuse can include:

- Threats

- Intimidation

- Damage to your property

- Physical attacks

How to Report Hate Crime

If you experience hate crime, report it to the police:

Call 101 to report a crime

Call 999 in an emergency

Report online at: thamesvalley.pnn.police.uk

If you don't want to speak to the police you can contact Victims First for confidential advice and support:

Call 0300 1234 148

Or go to victims-first.org.uk